Additional discussion notes

Tracking method: Staff ask new customers how they heard about the business and write the answer on paper intake forms. The owner says no one currently reconciles those forms into a monthly marketing report.

Partner arrangement: The owner describes the relationship with Cedar Creek Veterinary Clinic as informal. No written referral agreement or payment arrangement was mentioned.

Seasonality: The owner says boarding demand is highest around major holidays, but did not provide month-by-month marketing spend or booking figures.

Advisor observation: Referral figures and the tracking process are not supported by a monthly report or written partner agreement in this test file.
